

661—404.4(97A) Actions by the board. The board of trustees may accept the application as submitted and grant temporary incapacity, may reject the application for temporary incapacity status or may delay action on the application.

The board may at any time direct further medical examination of a member who is in temporary incapacity status, or who has an application pending for temporary incapacity status, by a physician or physicians, or other appropriate licensed health care providers.